Quasimodo leads the way for the audience to follow as he lets go of the pain of his past & finds his true purpose, becomes who he truly is and lives with love, instead of fear.

There's everything you would want, comedy and hilariously witty dialogue, a sword fight, lots of audience interaction and fantastic music. On Thursday 23 June, Year 2 went on excursion to Rouse Hill House and Farm as part of their HSIE unit 'The Past in the Present'. The students had the opportunity to learn first hand about what school life was like in the late 19th century.

Some of the hands on activities that the students were involved in included practising writing on slates, completing a Science lesson, a sewing lesson and a drawing lesson as well as an outdoor physical education drill and maypole dancing in the yard.

The excursion provided a valuable learning experience of schools in the past and enabled students to make vivid comparisons between schooling then and now.

On the tour bus we saw the Opera House, the Harbour Bridge, Saint Mary’s Cathedral, and lots of other different attractions. Once we finished the tour, we had arrived to Madame Tussauds Wax Museum.

Everything there was made out of wax and yet it looked so real! We saw different celebrities and took lots of photos. I even took a photo with the Queen! By the end of the excursion we were so tired, but it was a wonderful and exciting day. Thank you to Miss Chalhoub and Miss Stamos for organising such a great excursion!
